Bye Law 15

INSIDE OUT* EDITORIAL BOARD

1. Inside Out is the official Journal for the Irish Association of Humanistic and Integrative Psychotherapy.
2. The Editorial Board of the Inside Out Journal is responsible for the production of three issues per year, or as many as the Editorial Board of the time shall decide.
3. The Editorial Board operates within a set budget as agreed by the Governing Body of the time.
4. The Editorial Board has autonomy in all publication decisions. In the event of a request being made to the Editorial Board to withdraw or alter a contribution to the journal, the request is given full consideration by the Editorial Board in order to reach a fair, ethically-grounded decision. The Editorial Board's decision regarding publication or alteration is final.
5. The Editorial Board decides how many members are required on the Board at any given time and invites volunteers from the IAHIP membership to apply to join the Board as and when needed. A new appointment to the Board is made by the current Editorial Board with reference to a list of eligibility criteria which is available on the IAHIP website.
